 7. A Taste of Your Love

Into the River

Take me out of this brokenness
Away from this discontent
Take me out of these lonely places
And far from this wounding
Take me down to the waters edge
And plunge me into Your flood
I wanna go where Your Spirit goes
Take me into the river

Psalm 42

Deep calls to deep
In the roar of Your waterfalls

How long will you be so
Downcast within me my soul
It longs for You my God
Like a deer longs for water
I'm dry

All Your waves and Your breakers have swept over me
All Your pains and Your labors they still set me free
I will boast of You proudly at night let me sing
Every day You instruct me my Lord and my King

Send Down Your Fire

The disciples were all in one room that day
Prayin to You
Waiting for the heavens to break
Tongues of fire rested on them as they prayed

Prayin to You
Waiting for the heavens to break

Jesus this is what You promised
Come and fill us

Let Your Spirit pour out of us
Well tarry in Jerusalem until The Father sends down
What he promised to us

Lord we know revivals right around the bend
And the moves that are before us
Cant hold a candle to the end

We are praying without ceasing once again
We are calling for the lost to enter in

Send down Your fire let it burn out of control
So no one can put it out
A blazing inferno
A towering flame that everyone can see

Send down Your fire

Open Our Eyes Lord

I took my own way
I sewed my own seeds
But the crops I harvested
Left me hungry in the end
And the fruit I thought was ripe was rotten
But You came and gave me new wine for my soul

La da da da da
I know that You will never leave
La da da da da
I know You love me even then

Open our eyes Lord
Like on the road to Emmaus
Teach us to see
The heavens above
Lord let us witness
Your only Son who
Was torn on Calvary

More

I am desperate like Ive never been Aching on the inside caving in
Father feed this hunger

I need more of Your love
I need more of Your strength
I need more time alone with You

All night long I flood my bed with tears
Consumed with longing after all these years
Jesus pull me closer

Desperate

Sitting at Your feet
I am broken
Like the jar in front of
Kneeling down Im free
I surrender make me clean
Jesus make me clean

Reachin for Your robe
Just a touch now
And this pain it will let go
Reachin I take hold
And the healing sinks down deep into my bones
Make me clean

I know that faith it brings the healing
So I look to You
I know that I cant trust my feelings
So I trust in You

A Taste of Your Love

The day is gone and all I want is
A taste of Your love
Come fill my night come make me feel alive with

All of my hopes and all my dreams they Depend upon Your touch
I need You now I havent got that much without
A taste of Your love

Im askin now like Moses did before
Show me just one glimpse
Hide me inside the rock when You pass by
Give me just one glimpse
